March 2020

Presbyterian Church of Novato, 710 Wilson Ave., P.O. Box 631, Novato, CA 94948

We live in a wild, wild world. It's unpredictable. It's dangerous. There are few absolutes and guarantees. As much as we long for clear direction, for comfort, and security, we find it hard to come by. When we're in the wilderness, there are just so many unknowns.

This is important for us to realize because, as a church and as Christians, we find ourselves today not in the same world we were in decades ago; rather we are journeying through a wilderness. Long gone are the days where Christianity held power, authority, and privilege within society. Today, we have to trust and listen even more closely to the Holy Spirit to discern new forms and patterns of faithfulness that serve as Jesus calls us to serve in this new context.

This is why we've talked a lot about the WILDERNESS in preparation not only for our Lenten season, but for the future of our life and ministry. We spent five weeks exploring Jesus's sermon on the mount in Matthew's gospel, where we were given Kingdom Wisdom (to see the world as Jesus does).

Balance (between grace and demand, knowledge and action), God's love that brings 'wholeness of self' (perfection), the Word of God (being doers and not just consumers), and Trust in God (that frees us from worry and anxiety).

And now, fully equipped, we are embarking on our Lenten journey, exploring stories of redemption throughout Scripture to begin to see that the wilderness is not just a wild and dangerous place, but a place of hope and life-giving transformation as individuals and as a congregation. These stories go beyond our Lenten journey, however, and we see that they are examples of how God is at work in our own story at PCN.

So I invite you to join us on this journey throughout Lent and beyond. Be a part of God's story at the Presbyterian Church of Novato and find yourself surrounded by love and hope in ways that transform your life here and now, and forever.

With hope,
Pastor Adam

Ariel Mink

The season of Lent is a time for growth in faith – through prayer, spiritual discipline, and self-examination. It is an opportunity to reflect deeply on discipleship. As many of you know, last July I was elected the Associate Stated Clerk of our presbytery. Rev. Bob Conover holds a dual position: Stated Clerk and Mission Presbyter. He has announced his retirement date of May 16, 2020. At the February presbytery meeting, the Presbytery Council (the governing board of the presbytery, somewhat like the session of a congregation), recommended that I serve as the Interim Stated Clerk, which is a half-time position. Presbytery will vote on this recommendation at the May meeting. Through a lot of prayer and self-reflection, I have determined that taking on this new role is something I have been called to do and so, assuming that the vote in May is positive, my last day as your Ministry Associate will be May 31, 2020.

The word “Lent” comes from an old English word for springtime. Spring connotes renewal and new life. It suggests a time to birth new possibilities and see growth. All of us at PCN have been engaged in considering who we are as a community of faith and to articulate our vision as we build for the future. It is an exciting time as we explore new ways of connecting, new ways of being, new ways of discipleship. With the resignation of our youth director Morgan Smith at the end of January, and with my probable departure as ministry associate at the end of May, we are actively and strategically looking at our staffing configuration at PCN and how our various ministries are resourced. And, while it may feel like a death as things change, there absolutely is new life – just as we celebrate the resurrection at Easter, so too can we celebrate this new path on which we find ourselves and discover how we can all grow in faith.

With love and gratitude,
Ariel

Dr. Vicki Martinez is once again collecting reading glasses to take on her next mission trip. Reading glasses with a strength of 2.0 or 3.0 are most needed, but she can use other strengths as well. Please NO prescription glasses, just “cheaters” or reading glasses. Drop them off in the office by Monday, March 9.

Thank you for the generous giving to Agape International Missions during the Christmas Faire! The organization continues its important work in stopping sex trafficking in Cambodia and around the world and bringing attention to this terrible problem. Our contributions are making a difference in the world. For more information contact Phil Dougherty at phild@dhis.com or visit the AIM website at <https://agapewebsite.org/blog/>.

In a report from Matthew 25 Ministries International, Jeff Pinar shared the awesome news of the completion of the Church in the Downs located in Ruidoso Downs, New Mexico.

PCN sponsored three mission trips to work on finishing the interior of this church in 2010, 2011 and 2012. Combined with the efforts of many other volunteers, the project was almost completed.

Jeff reports that although most of the humans involved in opening the church ran out of money and energy, God did not, and it opened for its first worship service on February 16 in full compliance with all current building codes.

The completion of this project has earned Jeff another nickname, 'Noah,' for his steadfast commitment to see it completed.

May the Church of the Downs bless the people of the Downs for generations to come!

Thanks to PCN for the treasure, sweat and even some blood invested in opening this church.

Palm Sunday, April 5th, 2020

One Great Hour of Sharing is an ecumenical humanitarian effort of which our denomination has been a part since its inception in 1949. It was begun to give aid to war-ravaged Europe. Our congregation's special offering will be taken on Palm Sunday, April 5th, this year. Please give generously to OGHS; here are a few of the efforts your dollars will support:

PRESBYTERIAN DISASTER ASSISTANCE (PDA) PDA is the emergency program of PC(USA), enabling people to survive and thrive after natural and human-caused catastrophic events. Due to rapidly changing US immigration policies, PDA has had to regularly reassess and shift its attention in order to respond to the changes in circumstances. Midway through 2019, PDA has disbursed eight grants totaling $152,420 to presbyteries and US partners assisting refugees and asylum seekers and is currently studying how to increase support for shelter services in Mexico. PDA also provided a grant to the Reformed Calvinist Church of El Salvador (IRCES) for its new ministry with Salvadorans returned from US soil and Mexico.

PRESBYTERIAN HUNGER PROGRAM (PHP) takes action to alleviate hunger, care for creation, and face the systemic causes of poverty, supporting 113 grant partners, and making an impact in 21 countries, including the United States. In addition to these grant partners, PHP also works with 20 presbytery Hunger Action Advocates, 116 Hunger Action Congregations, and 213 Earth Care Congregations.

SELF-DEVELOPMENT OF PEOPLES (SDOP) invests in communities responding to their experiences of oppression, poverty and injustice and educates Presbyterians about the impact of these issues (active efforts focused on literacy, worker-owned cooperatives, advocacy, youth-led initiatives, farming, worker rights, and immigration/refugee issues). Through your gifts to One Great Hour of Sharing, more than 5,000 projects in poor communities in the US and around the world have had an opportunity to develop solutions to their own challenges since SDOP's inception.

Me and Twinkie, a therapy dog

I want to start off by saying a huge “THANK YOU!” to each and every person at PCN. I have never felt such love and support from so many people during my time in the hospital and in recovering afterwards. I had one of the most severe cases of mono the doctors had seen and, in addition, had tonsillitis and a super-imposed bacterial infection on my larynx. This caused me to lose the ability to swallow anything but my own saliva, I was unable to speak very well and was kept in the hospital for about two weeks until I could safely return home.

During the truly hellacious first week I was in the hospital, it was calls, emails, notes, and visits from all who were able that kept me afloat and hopeful for recovery. I was and continue to be humbled and heartened by the care and consideration I received from everyone. You all kept my mind on God’s healing hand and prayerfully focused on getting better.

When it got to the point that being in the current room was not conducive to the healing process (my neighbor was loud and wouldn’t let me sleep), my boyfriend advocated I get a new room. This switch to another room brought with it the peace I was praying for and the rest you all were telling me to get. Finally, I seemed to start to get better. About a week and a half into my stay, I had a bite of vanilla ice cream. It was so sweet and cold and creamy. I never tasted something so delightful and its significance to my recovery was not lost on me. I was able to swallow food! From a few bites of ice cream to a full cup of it to Cream of Wheat to Greek yogurt – I was finally making progress in getting down more food.

A couple days before I was released, my mom flew out and joined me at Massachusetts General Hospital. In that small room made smaller by the various machines and nurses bustling in and out checking vitals, getting bloodwork, administering pain medication, and ensuring I was getting nutrients via IV, Mom and I made the most of the situation. We watched Netflix and called relatives; she convinced me to try as many foods as I could; and she held my hand when the IV in my arm had burst a vein, but I still needed to take the final dose of antibiotics.

I was released Wednesday, February 12. Mom helped me into my apartment and I immediately took a nap on the couch. Once I woke up, I opened several get-well cards, and I was reminded again of how amazing a support the body of Christ can be. Whether it was an e-card from the Deacons, a hand-picked card with a note about how you were praying for me, or an email or text with an encouraging note – I felt and continue to feel the love of God surge through each and carry me closer to full recovery.

I will reiterate, THANK YOU. From the bottom of my heart, I am most grateful to you all.

SAVE THE DATE! Our next Vendor Fair will take place Saturday, April 25 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. All proceeds benefit the youth mission team. More details next month.

SEEKers celebrates Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King's birthday.....

....with lessons of Jesus chastising the money changers and pigeon sellers in the temple (building temples and selling animals).

SEEKers is nearly outgrowing Trevitt Hall! And that takes a lot of volunteers to cook, serve, and clean up a delicious, nutritious dinner every week. A multitude of thanks to our kitchen army.

Each week ends with meaningful and jubilant worship, led by resident musician, David Harmon, and masterfully presented by our middle school volunteer sound technician.

And all brought to us by the never-ending loving example and oversight of Sydney Fletcher and Sally Carbonaro....

"Hey, kiddos! Are you prayin' or playin'??..."

Pancake Supper

PCN's Mardi Gras pancake supper was a big hit! Nearly 100 people attended. Many thanks to all the volunteers who helped make this event a success.

Three adults and eight middle schoolers went to Hume Lake Christian Winter Camp the last weekend in January, and three adults and three high schoolers went February 21-23. We all had fun snowboarding, tubing, swinging on a giant swing, ice skating, and riding the mechanical bull. In addition to the fun, the youth also got serious and learned more about the story of the prodigal son. They personalized the gospel and the kids really deepened their faith. They learned that God is always willing to run out and meet us no matter what we've done. We are already looking forward to next year.

A NOTE FROM THE FINANCIAL SECRETARY: The Presbyterian Church, here and across the nation, has had a tradition of receiving tithes and offerings in dedicated offering envelopes. With the advent of electronic payment, the use of these is declining. It's time to reconfigure our giving options. I know from having taken a visual survey of the offerings that about 100 families use the envelopes for the Estimate of Giving. Fifteen to twenty families use their online "Bill Pay" each month, and several have used our online "Donate Now" button. For many years we have provided numbered boxes for those who offer an Estimate of Giving during the stewardship campaign. I need your help in lowering our costs for these envelopes. For those that use them, I will continue to provide numbered envelopes. If you want to actively opt out of the box of envelopes, and thus save money for PCN, please contact me at smonahan@pcnovato.org, and simply put "OPT OUT" in the memo line. Alternatively, you can call and leave me a message at 415-429-2477. I order the boxes for NEXT year at the end of THIS March! Thanks in advance for your help!!

We are excited to announce that we are including photo directories in the pews for use by members and friends to familiarize themselves with our PCN community. If you have an objection to being included in the pew directory, please notify the church office by March 10th.

Join us on Saturday, March 21 from 8 a.m. to noon as we clean up the church inside and out in preparation for Easter. We will be cleaning windows, removing trash, trimming trees and bushes and more. Lunch will be included. Contact Don Erba at (415) 892-9908 to volunteer or to get more information.

SOCIAL MEDIA TRAINING

PCN's Program and Fellowship Committee invites you to a social media training workshop on Sunday, March 22 from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. in the Christensen room.

PCN is connecting more with the community and as a congregation through technology, and you can stay current with it all!

Presented by Technology4Life, a local organization which offers practical, hands-on instruction in understanding and navigating social media. "We turn tech FEAR into tech SAVVY!"

There are a limited number of spaces available in order to provide more hands-on instruction. You can call the office at (415) 8979-6152 to sign up.

The event is free. Light refreshments will be provided.

Bring your smart phone or tablet to the event to practice with.

We would like to invite each of you to the Sunday Morning Adult Bible Study. The group meets in the church library at 9 a.m. We have a lively group and great discussions of the Scriptures each Sunday.

WHY DOESN'T GOD DO SOMETHING?

As Prophet Habakkuk surveyed the land of Judah, and then watched the international scene, he found himself struggling with some serious problems. But he did the right thing: he took his problems to the Lord.

Being a perceptive man, Habakkuk knew the kingdom of Judah was rapidly deteriorating. Even since the death of King Josiah in 6-9 B.C., his religious reforms had been forgotten and his son and successor Jehoiakim had been leading the nation closer to disaster.

Habakkuk's vocabulary in chapter 1 indicates that times were difficult and dangerous, for he uses words like violence, iniquity, grievance (misery), spoiling (destruction), strife, contention (disputes), and injustice. Habakkuk prayed that God would do something about the violence, strife, and injustice in the land, but God didn't seem to hear the prophet's cries.

But God answered His servant and assured him that He was at work among the nations even though Habakkuk couldn't see it. God gave Habakkuk a revelation, not an explanation, for what we always need in times of doubt is a new view of God. The Lord doesn't owe us any explanations, but He does graciously reveal Himself and His work to those who seek Him.

We hope that you would like to know how God answered His servant Habakkuk. Come and join us on Sunday mornings to see exactly how He works in people and nations. We will look forward to seeing each of you.

1 & 2 SAMUEL

Women's Bible Study welcomes women of all ages. Our class meets on Thursday mornings from 9:30 to 11:00 in the Christensen room, and is led by Carol Dacquisto, Elaine Harris and Melodie Baird. We are currently studying 1 & 2 Samuel. We'd love to have you join us anytime this month. The only cost is our $6.00 study guide. Call us at the numbers below if you have questions.

1 & 2 Samuel describes the inauguration of kingship for Israel and gives an account of the first two kings, Saul and David. In February we learned about God's decision to provide Israel with the king it has asked for, and Saul's unusual path to kingship. It begins when Saul – an impressive-looking man – goes in search of his father's donkeys. When he can't find them, he approaches Samuel for advice. When Samuel recognizes Saul as God's chosen, everything changes. Samuel anoints Saul as king, and when the spirit of God comes upon him, Saul is transformed into a new person. (1 Samuel 10:9). We'll see how this plays out for Saul during our March studies of 1 Samuel 11-14.

We look forward to seeing you in class on the following three days:

March 6: 9:30 to 11:00 a.m. in the Christensen room

March 13: spring break; no class

March 20: 9:30 to 11:00 a.m. in the Christensen room

March 27: 9:30 to 11:00 a.m. in the Christensen room

Presbyterian Women nurture their faith through prayer and Bible study, support missions of the church worldwide, and build an inclusive, caring community of women.

Our Purpose

Everything we do as an organization and as a community is guided by our PW Purpose, and that includes ministry, resources and relationships.

Forgiven and freed by God in Jesus Christ, and empowered by the Holy Spirit, we commit ourselves

- to nurture our faith through prayer and Bible study,
- to support the mission of the church worldwide,
- to work for justice and peace, and
- to build an inclusive, caring community of women that strengthens the Presbyterian Church (USA.) and witnesses to the promise of God's kingdom.

Anyone who supports the purpose in any way is participating in Presbyterian Women. So even if you're just learning about Presbyterian Women, there's a good chance you're already supporting Presbyterian Women – in spirit or in action! Won't you consider joining us in person?

Presbyterian Women are aligned under a shared purpose, but the gifts of the Spirit allow us to live into the purpose in our own, unique ways. Some individuals or groups find themselves particularly drawn to one or two points of the purpose. Other groups or individuals consciously work toward fulfilling all points. There are many faithful ways to live out the PW Purpose!

All women who attend The Presbyterian Church of Novato (PCN), please consider becoming an active member of the Presbyterian Women (PW) of PCN ... ALL ARE WELCOME (invite a friend)! We currently have two active PW circles at PCN that each meet once a month in the Christensen Room:

Ruth Circle usually meets the 4th Tuesday at 2 p.m. (Glenise Johnson, leader)

Rachel Circle now meets the 4th Wednesday at 5:30 p.m. (Pat Sullivan, leader)

The circle meetings are all presented via a video narrated by the author of the study book, which provides a very meaningful study and discussion among us for each lesson.

It's never too late to join us! Come see how interesting and meaningful Bible study (God's Word) becomes when shared among friends. Join us for the next circle meeting(s) in March 2020 ... we are saving a chair for YOU ... walk-ins are always welcome!

Books are available for our 2019-2020 Horizons Bible Study titled:
“LOVE CARVED IN STONE, A Fresh Look at the Ten Commandments,” by Eugenia Anne Gamble.

I am excited about this Bible study!

If you are unable to attend a Bible study circle, but still want to actively support the Presbyterian Women of PCN, you can participate in any of the following PCN PW projects. Any amount will add up to help PCN Presbyterian Women fulfill our larger purpose!

PCN Presbyterian Women's Mission Projects:

- (1) Least Coin Offering: Since 1956, Presbyterian Women have been collecting the Least Coin offering worldwide for evangelism, service, and relief projects.
- (2) Nickels For Nets: Each month, our women donate at least $0.05 for mosquito nets to help stamp out malaria in the world. Even the smallest donation will make a difference in the world when added together.
- (3) Birthday Offering: Each spring, we collect at least one penny for each year of our lives. This donation also goes toward innovative mission projects in the United States and worldwide.
- (4) Thank Offering: During the autumn months, we collect money for the Thank Offering. The Thank Offering provides food and water, alleviates homelessness, provides educational opportunities, promotes health, and improves the lives of women, children and men throughout the world in many other ways.
- (5) Knitted layette items (baby blankets, caps and booties, etc.) will continue to be given to new mothers and/or grandparents as our local PCN mission project. Anyone with knitting and/or crocheting skills can participate in this program. A big thank you to the women from PCN who have already contact me and brought me their beautiful knitted handiwork.

If you have any questions about Presbyterian Women, please don't hesitate to contact me:

PCN Connect Oscar season movie group ended its run with a great viewing party hosted by Bill and Jane Bradfield. Everyone pitched in food, including edible tuxedo-clad penguins and an Oscar-themed cake. Participants made their guesses in the various categories, with Cinemark gift cards for the winners. Tammi Jester and Brad Praun tied for first, and Carolyn Gerrans won third place.

Join us next October for more Oscar-movie fun!

Warm Fuzzy!

Have you ever reached into your pocket and pulled out a warm fuzzy? I had this experience just the other day, and it reminded me of the special family camp when this began so long ago.

It was family camp weekend and those who could headed up to Westminster Woods early. We had finished the opening dinner, and we were all gathered in the social hall to begin family camp, which would last until after church Sunday morning. First, we explained the various activities for the weekend ... and this one night we were told the story about “warm fuzzies.”

Each person, child to adult, was given a little bag, containing 25 little fuzzy balls. We were told that these represented God’s love and we had until Sunday morning to get rid of all 25 warm fuzzies by giving them away. The children took off trying to give a warm fuzzy to everyone, as everyone tried to give them warm fuzzies back. Soon everyone became involved as we tried to tuck a warm fuzzy into a pocket, passing to the person next to you at a meal ... whatever it took to get rid of your warm fuzzies! What games were played. We all wanted to gather at the church service Sunday without any warm fuzzies. The rest of that evening activities were to set the agenda for the weekend, adjourning to the nearby campfire for a short worship service and communion.

We would gather Saturday morning for breakfast and then off to age-appropriate activities: adults to a class or talk or activity, youth to a class or Bible study, youngsters to drawing or games, and infants to the nursery. Saturday afternoon offered various opportunities from swimming in the pool, working on the weekend banner, napping, hiking, playing games, continuing the morning discussions – it was free time to enjoy being in the woods with God and our community from the church.

Dinner was always festive and delicious. AND then followed the talent show, presented by anyone who wanted to participate. We sang some hymns and camp songs. Some little ones recited a poem, others performed on their instruments, there were some skits – a little of everything!

And when that ended, those who wanted to would head up the hill to the amphitheater, where we enjoyed a campfire and s'mores. There was a midnight walk to the cross for the hearty ones while others headed for bed or to the hall for games of all kinds.

Sunday morning was frantic as everyone worked to get rid of warm fuzzies, eat a light breakfast, packed up and loaded cars, followed by church and brunch. The brunch must be highlighted because it was delicious blintzes.

And then home to begin planning for the next family camp. The banner made by the banner group on Saturday afternoon was presented to the church on the next Sunday. They are now all hanging in the apse of the church.
